

IACAPAP 2020
SINGAPORE

VIRTUAL CONGRESS

PLENARY ABSTRACT

GUILHERME V POLANCYZK

Promotion of Development and Prevention of Mental Disorders

Promotion and prevention must be priority actions for child and adolescent psychiatrists. Many opportunities are lost if we do not invest in promoting children's skills, in identifying problems as they emerge and in offering sequential interventions according to the severity of the problems. Several barriers exist to the translation of promotion and prevention into public health policies and clinical practice.

In this conference, I will discuss the potential of these strategies and the barriers to their full development.